

WEBSITE TERMS OF USE

Last Updated: August 20, 2026

1. Acceptance of Terms

These Website Terms of Use ("Terms") govern access to and use of the KinetX Dance LLC ("KinetX," "we," "us," or "our") website, online registration system, and related online services (collectively, the "Website"). By accessing or using the Website, you agree to these Terms. If you use the Website on behalf of a dance studio or other organization, you represent that you are authorized to act on its behalf.

2. Registration and Authorized Users

Competition entries must be submitted through a registered studio using KinetX's online registration system; independent entries are not accepted. Users must provide accurate, current, and complete information and are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of any account credentials. Information submitted regarding minor dancers must be provided by an authorized studio representative, parent, legal guardian, or other person authorized to provide that information, as applicable.

3. Event Registration, Fees and Payment

Event registrations are subject to availability, applicable deadlines, payment requirements, and KinetX's then-current Pricing & Fees. Entries are not guaranteed until payment requirements are satisfied. Refunds, cancellations, credits, and related matters are governed by KinetX's Website Policies, including its Refund & Cancellation Policy, and any applicable Rules & Regulations.

4. Rules & Regulations

Registration for and participation in KinetX events are subject to the applicable KinetX Rules & Regulations, including requirements concerning performance levels, age divisions, routine categories, judging, awards, props, costumes, music, media, scheduling, conduct, and other competition requirements. KinetX may update its Rules & Regulations from season to season.

5. Participant Waiver & Release

Participation in a KinetX event may require a properly completed Participant Waiver & Release before a dancer is permitted to participate. The Participant Waiver & Release contains separate terms concerning assumption of risk, release of liability, medical authorization, media authorization, and other participation-related matters. These Terms do not replace or modify the Participant Waiver & Release.

6. Privacy and Security

KinetX's collection, use, disclosure, and protection of personal information are described in the KinetX Website Policies, including the Privacy Policy and Security Policy. By using the Website, you acknowledge that information may be processed by KinetX and its service providers as described in those policies.

7. Intellectual Property

The Website and its content, including the KinetX name and logos, graphics, text, competition materials, photographs, videos, and other content owned or licensed by KinetX, are protected by applicable intellectual property laws. Except as expressly permitted by KinetX, users may not copy, reproduce, distribute, modify, publish, display, sell, license, or commercially exploit KinetX content.

8. Prohibited Uses

You may not use the Website to submit false or misleading information; impersonate another person or organization; interfere with the Website or its security; introduce malicious code; attempt unauthorized access to accounts, systems, or data; scrape or harvest information through automated means without permission; or use the Website for unlawful or fraudulent purposes.

9. Third-Party Services and Links

The Website may use or link to third-party services, including providers that support event registration, payment processing, media, electronic signatures, or other KinetX operations. Third-party services may be governed by their own terms and privacy policies. KinetX is not responsible for the availability or independent practices of third-party websites or services.

10. Website Availability and Disclaimer

KinetX may modify, suspend, or discontinue any portion of the Website or online services at any time. While KinetX uses reasonable efforts to maintain the Website, KinetX does not guarantee that the Website will always be available, uninterrupted, error-free, or free from harmful components. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Website is provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis.

11. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, KinetX will not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages arising from or relating solely to use of, or inability to use, the Website. This Website limitation does not replace or alter any separate rights, obligations, releases, or limitations contained in an applicable Participant Waiver & Release or other written agreement with KinetX.

12. Indemnification

You agree to indemnify and hold KinetX harmless from third-party claims, damages, liabilities, and reasonable expenses arising from your unlawful misuse of the Website, your material violation of these Terms, or false or unauthorized information submitted by you through the Website.

13. Electronic Communications

By using the Website or providing an email address in connection with registration, you consent to receive transaction-related communications electronically, including registration confirmations, event information, policy notices, and other communications relating to KinetX services. Marketing communications, if any, will be handled in accordance with applicable law.

14. Changes to These Terms

KinetX may update these Terms periodically. Revised Terms will be posted on the Website with an updated "Last Updated" date. Changes apply prospectively from the date posted unless otherwise stated.

15. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to conflict-of-law principles. Any separate dispute-resolution provision contained in an applicable Participant Waiver & Release or other written agreement with KinetX will govern disputes subject to that document.
